The Medicine Bow National Forest Plan Revision (with a planning schedule) was presented to the Board by Dave Harris and Lynn Jackson.

Lynn Jackson explained paperwork in the packet handed out by the Forest Service. She advised public meetings have been held in Saratoga, Douglas, Cheyenne and Laramie this month. They are asking the public to clarify major and minor issues for developing alternatives and are seeking public comment on the six draft themes prepared by the Forest Service. The comments from the public will help them define alternatives for action and conceptual themes to serve as the framework for setting goals and objectives, mapping management areas and developing standards and guidelines for the alternatives.

Some of the major issues identified in these public meetings are as follows: Recreation, Roadless Areas/Wilderness, Special Areas (Research Natural Areas, Special Interest Areas, recommended Wild and Scenic Rivers), Timber and Vegetation Management, Biological Diversity, and Oil and Gas.

The Forest Service wished to present this information to the commissioners and welcomed any feedback from the commissioners or the public. Chairman Zeiger mentioned the letter from Governor Geringer to the Forest Service in regard to the Medicine Bow Forest Plan.
