

COMMISSIONER PROCEEDINGS
SPECIAL MEETING
MAY 11, 1998

The Carbon County Board of Commissioners held a special meeting Monday, May 11, 1998 at 4:00 p.m. in the Commissioner Meeting Room of the Courthouse, Rawlins, Wyoming. Commissioners present in person were Artlin Zeiger, Chairman and Gary Graalman. Commissioner Linda Fleming participated by speakerphone from Forth Worth, Texas.

SPECIAL MEETING

A special meeting was held to appoint an interim county clerk to replace William E. Harshman who officially retired for medical reasons effective May 1, 1998.

Three names were submitted by the Carbon County Republican Central Committee. The candidates were Courtney Bohlender, who is Saratoga's clerk-treasurer, Debbie Weickum, co-owner of Sunnyside Car Wash and Candy Mountain Beverage and Vending, and Teddy Yockey, chief deputy county clerk.

Each candidate was given an opportunity to expound on her qualifications. Bohlender told the Commissioners about her experience as Saratoga clerk and working for the Town of Sinclair. Weickum talked about her experience as a businesswomen working in the clerk's office where she set up several computer systems and did the county payroll. Yockey told the Commissioners that she has been working in the clerk's office for fifteen and a half (15 1/2) years, seven (7) of which have been as chief deputy clerk and has handled just about every job responsibility in the clerk's office or cross-trained for it.

After listening to the presentations, Commissioner Linda Fleming said the Republicans certainly sent three (3) very qualified people for the job. Fleming made the motion to appoint Yockey to fill out Harshman's term. The motion was seconded by Graalman and unanimously approved.

AJOURNMENT

THERE BEING NO FURTHER BUSINESS, the meeting was adjourned.
